Surprise Among the Stacks: Archivist Discovers Rare Document Handwritten by President Calvin Coolidge Linking Him to the Meredith Public Library

“Nothing in the world can take the place of persistence.”

~President Calvin Coolidge

Four tall file cabinets of overlooked ledgers, documents, and plans detailing Meredith Public Library’s 142-year history have been aging in the recesses of the library for decades. In 2023, Library Director Erin Apostolos asked a new Friends of the Library volunteer and Archivist, Carola Davis, if she might tackle the job of organizing and cataloging the records.

Always excited to discover what might be lurking in drawers and boxes of mixed-up papers, Davis spent one day a week for an entire year examining, sorting, arranging, and describing pieces of the library’s past business. Little did she suspect that towards the end of the project, a rare find of national significance would be discovered tucked away in a 1914 circulation ledger.

Ms. Davis found three sheets of notes written by librarian Mrs. L.E.(Lillian) Wadleigh who became a library Trustee in 1892 and later served as librarian for over 50 years. Her notes, a series of book numbers jotted in pencil covered the backs of three letters, all dated 1926. One letter was about finding a red ribbon for her typewriter and the other a note about reimbursing postage.

The third letter was an unexpected gem! As she unfolded it, Davis recognized the White House logo embossed in blue at the top. Dated October 2, 1926, the correspondence was an (Continued on page 3.)

Carola Davis proudly displays the Calvin Coolidge letter.

Archivist Finds Letter

original handwritten single-page letter from President Calvin Coolidge to David Lawrence, with the President's signature at the close. Coolidge was commending Lawrence for his efforts in starting the United States Daily (based in Washington, DC) that year, the first subscription journal reporting on national affairs. Lawrence went on to be one of the most influential journalists of the 20th century.

President Coolidge was a Vermont native and a long-term resident of Massachusetts, serving there as Governor in 1918, Vice-President to Warren G. Harding in 1921, and as President from 1923-1929. How Mrs. Wadleigh ended up with the signed presidential letter and used it indiscriminately for her notes is a mystery!

Our library sleuths are looking into connections between Mrs. Wadleigh, the library, and President Coolidge. Readers with information that might help solve the mystery are encouraged to call the library at 603-279-4303 or email librarian@meredithlibrary.org.

NHLTA Small Library of the Year Celebration

Thank you to the over 100 people who attended our celebration for Small Library of the Year from the NH Library Trustee Association. The award is given to the library who best connects with its community, and judging by our enthusiastic turn-out, our community agrees with their choice. Thank you to our staff, board, volunteers and community for supporting your library for over 142 years.

THE OLD MAN: HIS LIFE AND LEGACY

PRESENTED BY INEZ MCDERMOTT

When the Old Man of the Mountain fell from his perch high above Franconia Notch, on May 3, 2003, it made international news. Many in New Hampshire and beyond responded as though mourning a beloved public figure. This program presents the "story" of the Old Man and examines the ways that public perceptions of the Profile played a role in shaping and establishing New Hampshire's identity.

With support from the Meredith Village Savings Bank, Moulton Farm and the Meredith Frame Shop, Dr. Band donated his work in support of the Friends of the Meredith Library for this fundraising effort.

"Even though we completed our renovation and expansion in 2021, due to budget constraints, there were a few things we had to cut. One was new shelving for the Teen Zone," said Library Director, Erin Apostolos. "Our teen librarian Liz Rohdenberg has been doing an amazing job with outreach in the community, including working with Inter-Lakes Schools to bring a bus stop to the front of the library. Our teen numbers have sky-rocketed with the addition of an after-school program and we find we need to revamp our Teen Zone to accommodate the growth." The fundraiser will benefit upgrading shelving and furniture for teens.

The Library
 Written by "Your Neighbor" and found tucked into a book.

I consider it a blessing to be able to come to a quiet place in sound, but then the loudest place with so many voices waiting to be heard when chosen and read. Sitting on a shelf they are respectful and will not speak to a single soul unless that soul invites them to do so. It fascinates me the possibilities that are available. The chance to truly be welcome in another human's mind and imagination. When I make the choice to read, it is quick that I find my decision to be the utmost and highest choice that I can make. Books have and will always be a big part of my life AND I'M THANKFUL FOR THIS...
